Suspicious Wife Attacks Couple in Pittsburgh Movie Theater.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Pittsburgh, Sept. 23.—Wielding a heavy riding crop. Mrs. Edwin S. Lowrie, 51 years old, a prominent society woman of the North Side, administered a severe heaving to her wealthy husband. E. S. Lowrie, and a pretty, fashionably dressed young woman who, she alleged, was his companion in a Carson street movie

In the uproar that followed the opening of the attack four women in the audience fainted, and one of them. Mrs. Mary Tasmeyer, is in a serious condi-

A hurried call sent to the South Side police station resulted in the arrest of Lowrie and his wife. The young woman, alleged companion of Lowrie, despite the fact that she was badly cut up by the heavy whip, managed to escape from the theater during the near-riot that followed Mrs. Lowrie's attack. Her identity has not been existablished. has not been established.

Lowrie declared that the attack was

STOLEN SHOES NO FIT, RETURNS AND BUYS PAIR

Special to The Washington Herald Baltimore. Sept. 23.—William Holley, colored, alias Clarence Watson, was be-fore Justice Clift this morning on the charge of stealing twenty-five pairs of shoes from Benjamin Koppel.

According to Koppel, the theft was committed early Friday morning. Holley stated that he took the shoes home, found that none fitted and the same morning sold four pairs to a second-hand dealer on Harrison street. Then with the money he purchased a pair of shoes from Kop-

CALLS EIGHT-HOUR LAW SPECIAL LEGISLATION

"In return for special legislation for the benefit of a comparatively few people and against the interests of the general public, leaders of four labor unions now are endeavoring to deliver the votes of their members to the Wilson administration," according to a statement made yesterday by Johnathan Bourne at the headquarters of the Republican Publicity Association, of which he is president.

"With a frankness never before discontinuation," according to a statement with leave for home, arriving early tomorrow morning.

The committee in charge of the excursion consists of Dr. J. Rozier Biggs, chairman; George A. Dalvy, secretary; Henry Dolan, F. D. McAuliffe, Dr. J. F. Bradley, Francis S. Mullin, F. J. Cleary, Henry Raeder, Michael Heister, William M. Walsh, W. J. Howard, S. M. McLaughlin, Henry Spicer, Frank Clancy and Bernard T. Fitzgerald.

MIST WIN GIRL'S LOVF

"With a frankness never before dis-played in the barter and sale of votes, labor leaders assert that the administra-tion has used its official power in the interests of these men and urges upon them the duty of delivering the vote.

The price has been paid in legislation which provides for an increased wage, and the administration expects the vote to be recorded.
